I revoke any prior advance directives I have made. This document reflects my healthcare preferences as of June 18, 2026.

PART II: LIFE-SUSTAINING TREATMENT PREFERENCES

A. Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation (CPR)

I do not want cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR). I wish for a natural death.

B. Mechanical Ventilation

I do not want to be placed on a mechanical ventilator.

C. Artificial Feeding and Hydration

I do not want a feeding tube for artificial nutrition and hydration.

D. Dialysis

I do not want dialysis.

E. Antibiotics

I request antibiotics only if the infection is treatable and I am expected to recover.

F. Blood Transfusions

I do not want blood transfusions.

PART III: CONDITION-SPECIFIC INSTRUCTIONS

I do NOT want life-sustaining treatment if:

- I am permanently unconscious (e.g., a persistent vegetative state).
- I am diagnosed with a terminal illness.
- I am diagnosed with severe dementia or another irreversible cognitive condition.
- I am diagnosed with another incurable condition.

PART IV: PAIN MANAGEMENT

I direct that my comfort and pain management be prioritized, even if it might shorten my life.

I am willing to accept medications that may have side effects or may hasten death if they are necessary for my comfort.

PART V: PERSONAL VALUES AND BELIEFS

What matters most to me: I wish to maintain my ability to make decisions (necessary for daily life), communicate (both verbally and in writing), and perform basic self-care (walking, eating, and hygiene) without any assistance.

Quality of life considerations: If I lose these core abilities due to a permanent physical or mental disability, I would consider my independence lost. Further more, if I cannot engage in meaningful activities or experience joy through engaging in conversation and hobbies, I consider it not worth living.

My main concerns: Being in pain, unable to take care of myself without the aid of others.

PART VI: RELIGIOUS AND CULTURAL CONSIDERATIONS

Religious affiliation: None

Religious instructions: None

Cultural considerations: None

PART VIII: BODY DISPOSITION

Preference for my body: Cremation

Special wishes: Scatter at sea or communal grounds or anywhere permitted.

PART IX: SIGNATURE AND VALIDATION

I acknowledge this is my wishes regarding health care and authorize my healthcare agent to act according to this document.
